We help orphans and elderly Christians (many in their 80s, even 90s) who had been imprisoned for their faith in present or former communist countries.

At this critical moment, we help also many Christian refugees from Ukraine!

"At midnight there was a cry made 'Behold, the bridegroom cometh,' go ye out to meet him" (Matthew 25:6).

Late Reverend Richard Wurmbrand spent 14 years in Romanian communist prisons. Mrs. Wurmbrand was imprisoned for nearly three years, also for her Christian faith, in some of the same communist prisons.

From an unpublished Bible meditation by late Reverend Richard Wurmbrand
THE LIGHT SHINETH IN DARKNESS

The earth turns around on its axis. Midnight is the moment when a part of the earth is the farthest away from the sun. Spiritual midnight is the period of the greatest departure of men from God. We are approaching this midnight and its terrific events.

But midnight is not received with the same feelings by the children of God as by the world. At midnight, the firstborn of the Egyptians died, but the chosen people got their freedom. The Lord has said "The night comes when no man can work" (John 9:4). But as often as a thing is declared impossible in the Bible, this does not refer to the faithful. About them, Jesus declared, "all things are possible to him that believes" (Mark 9:23).

The holy people can work even near midnight. It was at midnight that Samson took the gates of the city of Gaza (Judges 16:3). At midnight, Ruth received from Boaz the promise, "I will do to you all that you require" (3:11). At midnight, Paul and Silas won for the Lord the jailer of Philippi (Acts 16:25).

At midnight, the people of God do their greatest exploits. Therefore, the psalmist says "At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto Thee" (Psalm 119:62).

I was able to meet during three days one of the leaders of the unregistered Baptists, part of the underground church in the Soviet Union. These courageous Christians meet stealthily, conduct baptisms during the night in secret places and oppose the suppression of Christianity by the communist authorities. I told our brother "Some in the West contest even the existence of the Underground Church. What would be your comment?" He answered, "You could as well say that after the ascension of our Lord there was no Christian church in Palestine. If you would have asked anyone in Palestine, including the apostles, if there is a Christian church, they would have answered you that they have never heard about such an organization. They called themselves the believers, the saints, and the disciples. The name Christian has been given to them after decades, by the heathen. Then the disciples accepted what was first meant to be a nickname. The same it is with us. We never called ourselves Underground Church. Communists called us the Underground Church. Under this charge they imprisoned innumerable brethren. Then we, remembering the beautiful time of the church of the catacombs, accepted the name."

I asked the brother if their conscience does not tell them that they have to be submissive to the authorities. His answer was amazing: "If we are wrong, the whole Baptist religion is wrong. I read an article in our secret magazine "The Herald of Salvation." It tells about Thomas Helwys, a pastor of the first ever Baptist church on English soil. He went to prison because he had said that the King has no power over the immortal souls of his subjects, to make laws and ordinances for them and to put spiritual rulers over them. I read about a letter smuggled out of prison in England in 1620 by a Baptist, John Murton. The letter was written in milk, just as we do now. The jailers would not observe. Our families would know how to make the letters readable. He wrote, 'the magistrate can only compel the body, not the mind and the conscience.' If we are wrong, John Bunyan has been a fool. He preferred to sit twelve years in prison, rather than worship in a manner decided by somebody else. And with him it was only the case of complying with another form of Christian religion, whereas we would have to comply with atheistic rulers."

We don't care about the fact that midnight is approaching. Only ordinary men cannot work during a spiritual night, but "All things are possible to him that believeth." He can work even when he personally passes through the dark night of the soul, even when he is on his death bed. We are not afraid of the darkness in the world. We work. The bridegroom comes soon. We cannot meet Him empty handed.

Christian Refugees from the Present Russian-Ukrainian War Helped with your Gifts! A few samples of pictures and receipts.

A Christian Ukrainian refugee, helped by this mission while in Ukraine and now helped to arrive with a large family in Canada. He wrote: “Dear Brother Michael: At your request, I send a brief testimony of my life and persecution for the name of Christ. My name: Tkach Vasily Ivanovich; Year of birth 1946; Year of baptism 1970; Married since 1970, wife Maria, three children, all believers; Baptist, member of the MSC ECB church (The unregistered Evangelical church which opposed the dictatorship of the communists in the former Soviet Union – N. Ed.) In 1984 I was arrested, sentenced to 3 years and 6 months of general regime. Released in 1987 in August. During this entire prison term, I was kept under the special attention of the KGB (the communist secret police, N. Ed.) During this prison term, the authorities published three newspaper articles unmasking me as a “Christian believer dangerous to the Soviet State.” I lost the right to all personal family visits. I had to suffer four times a special harsh punishment – being detained in a solitary cell. During this prison term, I worked at a logging site in the Soviet Far-North taiga (a swampy forest of firtrees in the high northern latitudes of Russia, N. Ed.) I have been familiar with the book Tortured for Christ (written by your father) for a long time. I sympathize with your family, who suffered persecution for the Lord Jesus Christ. Vasily

When the family fled Odessa, they did not have time to take too much with them, so this money will be used for clothes, food and hygiene items. They all live in a rented apartment, where the rent is 300 €.

Ukrainian Christian Refugees Helped with your Gifts

April 16, 2022

Dear contributors:

My gratitude to all who donated generously toward helping so many refugees from Ukraine, a true flood of displaced individuals. More than 4 million have escaped the current war and another 3 million are expected to come out. If one reads the daily news, one will be convinced easily these are not exaggerated figures. These are persons who flee from extensive bombing and continuing total destructions of whole towns.

It happens that my birth country, Romania and the Republic of Moldova (also a Romanian language country) have together the longest common border with Ukraine. At the same time, Romania is one of the poorest countries in the European Union and Moldova is economically worse. Between Romania and Moldova so far, nearly 1 million Ukrainians have sought refuge already. Refugees come at times at the rate of 10,000/24 hours. Most of these refugees are women with 3 to 8 children. Fortunately, many other countries in Europe and North America are accepting to resettle these refugees, if they can arrive there. Many churches outside Romania, have sent transportation means, like buses and even chartered flights. These refugees speak Ukrainian and Russian. Here and there, the communality of the Romanian language is of help, since some border localities like the university town of Czernowitz (name in German, Cernauti in Romanian) where my mother was born, used to be part of Romania before WWII. Some of the younger generation might have a little knowledge of English.

Through many reliable contacts of many years in Romania, we concentrated on helping with local Romanian currency of US $200 to $2,000 per family of Christian believers refugees. Many came out with hardly more than the shirt on their back. There were miles long lines at the border. Through the local Christians who deserve all praise, we provide pocket money given in hand for food and believers' lodging for a few days, until there is a partial resolution as to near future plans of settling some place somehow or moving-on further to other countries. $2,000 seems to be a large sum for an elderly couple who could escape but most couples come out with larger groups of 10 to 15 children and grandchildren. Just as one example, we paid for a Victoria village home, $6,000 for a one-month lodging and food for 3 adults and 12 children. Most of these refugees entertain the illusion of taking refuge out of their native country and their lodging and work, for a short time but the way the news comes out on this prolonged war, I doubt this will be the case. I believe these refugees will remain refugees for many years to come. We publish in this newsletter a few receipts of scores more, documenting what I wrote above. Again, thanks and God Bless. Michael Wurmbrand

Above, a sample only of a long list, our mission was able to compile beside other lists, of over 480 elderly Baptist Christians most of them still alive, who suffered for the Christian faith in the former Soviet Union. The prison sentences amounted from 2 years, to as many as 18 years of communist prison. If considered together, their years of prison-sentences shown in our abbreviated table, would most likely add up to over 2,000 years of prison. The 4th and 5th column together, show year of birth and the most recent country they live in (like Ukraine, Russia, Kazakhstan, Belarus, etc.) We try obtain exact addresses, so we may be able to send encouraging help to those still alive. We were able to send repeated help to about 120 such elderly Russian-speaking Christians and over 110 of other languages. Many of their testimonies you can read in the monthly newsletter. Testimonies available also on the internet. Look up third column at: website: <https://helpforrefugees.com>
